The Emerson Piano.

These instruments have enjoyed a high reputation for more than forty years. Are brilliant and musical in tone, and afford a most beautiful accompaniment to vocal music—the tone having the rare sympathetic quality which blends admirably with the human voice. They are durable, being constructed of the Best Materials, by the Most Skillful Workmen. They have earned an especial reputation for keeping in tune, and also for retaining in a most remarkable degree their original finish of tone—never growing thin or wiry with age.

The Emerson Upright Pianos especially have obtained a remarkable success during the past few years, and have invariably received a high award wherever exhibited. In all the essential qualities of a first-class instrument they are second to no piano manufactured in the country.

Manufacturers Hold a Convention at Columbus.

The Question of Unjust Taxation Fully Considered.

A State Organization Effected and Officers Elected—A Vigorous Fight to Be Made Against the Rawlings Bill, Taxing Made-Up Products.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 16.—The Ohio association of productive industries was organized here Thursday by nearly seventy representative manufacturers from various parts of the state. The movement toward the formation of a state association of manufacturers originated in Cincinnati, where an organization of between 200 and 300 of the leading manufacturing firms exists. The committees of this body are constantly studying the economic questions relating to manufactures, and investigating the facilities and advantages of other states—whether manufacturers are deterred from coming into Ohio, the volume of production restricted, or the tendency to drive manufacturing away.

The success and usefulness of the Hamilton county organization led to the belief that it would be a good thing to have a state association on a similar basis. Hence invitations to the convention here Thursday were sent out to all the manufacturing firms in Ohio, in which it was announced that the meeting would be held "for the purpose of devising effective methods to relieve the manufacturing interests of the state from the undue proportion of taxation which is imposed upon them by existing laws."

A temporary organization was effected by the election of F. H. Gladden, of Cleveland, chairman, and E. P. Wilson, of Cleveland, secretary. Mr. Gladden spoke of the need of reform in the matter of taxation, and was followed by Mr. W. F. Perkins, vice-president of the Manufacturers' association of Cincinnati. The latter advised caution, so that no injury would be done to other interests. The manufacturers must go to the legislature with this idea in view, without antagonizing the agricultural interests of the state.

Mr. Wm. N. Whitely, of Springfield, thought the meeting would be conducive of good, and he would guarantee that the manufacturers would not ask for anything that was not just—anything that would be detrimental to other interests, or to industries. Speeches voicing the same sentiments were made by Col. James Kilbourne and Mr. Wm. Russell, of Columbus; Mr. J. F. Taylor, of Cincinnati; C. R. Teed, of Dayton, and others of prominence.

In pursuance of a resolution offered by Mr. A. J. Wright, of Dayton, a state association was formally organized. The election of officers resulted as follows: W. T. Perkins, of Cincinnati, president; W. R. Warner, Cleveland, first vice president; J. F. Oglerie, Columbus, second vice president; E. P. Wilson, Cincinnati, secretary, and M. P. Cox, Canton, treasurer.

The executive committee is composed of James Taylor and B. W. Campbell, Cincinnati; C. V. Osborne, Dayton; Henry Flesch, Piquette; George D. Shelby, Portsmouth; Henry A. Lamm, Columbus; Charles Thompson, Fremont; J. W. McClymonds, Massillon; J. A. Long, Akron; Henry Holt and A. J. Wright, Cleveland.

The first meeting of the new association will be held at an early date, when a vigorous fight will be made against the Rawlings bill, taxing the made-up products of manufacturers.

Cleveland Denies It.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—President-elect Grover Cleveland was apparently up to his eyes in business when a reporter called to ascertain the truth of the announcement in the Albany Times-Union that Senator Hill had been tendered the portfolio of secretary of state. He sent down word that he was too busy to be seen. In answer, however, to the paragraph announcing the selection of Mr. Hill as premier of Mr. Cleveland's cabinet, the president-elect sent the following note: "So far as I know, not a single word of truth in the stuff."

A PRETTY ROMANCE.

An Heiress, Who Had Been Adopted by Others When a Child, Finds Her Mother.

BIRMINGHAM, N. Y., Dec. 16.—The fieldie goddess fortune has smiled upon Clara Dubois, formerly an inmate of the orphan's home in this city. Her father died when she was five years old and her mother placed the child in the institution. A year later Clara was adopted by the family of Dr. A. D. Simmonds, of Etos, this state. She assumed their name and in time she forgot her own mother. The latter married Girard Webb, of this city. Mrs. Webb tried to learn the whereabouts of her daughter, but the stringent rules would not permit the authorities of the institution to furnish her a clew.

A few days ago a young woman with plump form and rosy cheeks stepped from an in-bound train and inquired the way to the police station. She proved to be the long lost child, now a beautiful girl of sixteen. The police assisted her to find her mother and the meeting was a very affecting one. The girl is an heiress to a large fortune left her by her foster father, which will be paid to her when she becomes of age. Several months ago she learned that she was simply an adopted child and immediately set about finding her mother.

SHOT INSTANTLY.

President Hippolyte Makes Quick Work of Would-be Assassins.

PANAMA, Dec. 16.—The report of an attempt to assassinate President Hippolyte, of Hayti, is confirmed by reliable advices that have reached here. The president ordered that the prisoner, having openly confessed his guilt, should be shot at once, and that the captain of the guard and the sentries who were stationed at the entrance of the palace should also be shot. The orders were at once carried out and the condemned persons were shot to death in the garden of the palace. The sentinel who had detected and seized the assassin was munificently rewarded and promoted.

The firing, when the condemned men were executed, was heard in the adjoining part of Port-au-Prince and aroused much excitement, it being thought at first that a revolution was being attempted at the palace. When the facts became known the president's action was generally approved. His enemies, however, claimed that there was no truth in the report of the assassination, and that Hippolyte had simply taken occasion to get rid of some followers whom he suspected.

THE GREATEST GUN.

It Stands a Pressure of Thirty Tons to the Square Inch.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—The first firing of the Brown segmental tube wire five-inch gun at Hardsboro, Pa., on Saturday, the 14th inst., was made with the tubes only rough bored, the object being chiefly to test the working of the breech mechanism rather than to experiment with high pressure in the gun.

The results were very satisfactory. On the third fire, in which 18 pounds of powder and an 84-pound shot were used, the breech mechanism worked perfectly and easily, and pressure of more than 60,000 pounds to the square inch.

This result was rather astonishing, but subsequent firings demonstrated that the pressure of over 60,000 pounds to the square inch obtained at the third shot was absolutely accurate. The first firing of the Brown segmental wire gun without a lining tube has shown, therefore, that it will withstand absolutely without a lining tube, and without the slightest injury, a pressure that would burst any other kind of a gun.

FEMALE FORGER.

A Senator's Daughter in Jail at Huntsville, Ala.

TACOMA, Wash., Dec. 16.—Mrs. Annie M. Murphy is in jail at Huntsville, Ala., charged with forgery. She is the wife of a Tacoma merchant, from whom she parted recently, to begin a systematic draft forging business. Inside of a month she has uttered $2,895 in forged National Bank Commerce drafts, this city, on the Chase national bank, New York. All of them have been cashed, save one for $350, which she wanted to get cashed in Huntsville, Ala. The Chase national bank, of New York, offered a reward for her capture. Mrs. Murphy appeared in male attire. Her father is Senator McRea.

A Boy Hero.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Dec. 16.—The east end witnessed a heroic act Thursday forenoon. Mrs. William Armstrong fell on the track at the York street crossing of the Big Four and became unconscious. When the fast train was within ten feet of her, Edward Johnson, fourteen, jumped forward and grabbed her, pulling the woman out of the way just in time. He fell with his burden at the side of the track, but he saved the woman's life.

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., Dec. 16.—Chas. A. Benson, the doomed murderer of Mrs. Theresa Mettman, who is now awaiting the final sentence of death, made a vicious assault upon his day guard, Capt. J. DRESS REFORM.

Recommended by the National Council of Women. Now in session.

CHICAGO, Dec. 16.—The national council of women, in triennial session at the Palmer house, Thursday, listened to an extensive report on dress reform presented by Mrs. Frances E. Russell, chairman of the committee on that subject. The members of the committee are Mrs. S. F. Parker, Mrs. Annie Jenness-Miller, Mrs. Octavia Bates. The report after discussing all the forms of dress suggested by several advocates of reform in women's garments, fixed upon and recommended one of a composite type—loose waist and short-skirted enough to enable the wearer to go up and down stairs without danger.

The report was exhaustively discussed, but it was deferred for future meetings to adopt or to modify. The committee on equal wages, having in charge the agitation looking toward the establishment of the principle of equal pay for equal work, reported that efforts were being made to have a bill introduced in congress making statutory provision for that reform.

The divorce reform committee made a report outlining the work of the committee in behalf of the council looking toward the representation of women in the national divorce reform league.

LOTTERY FRAUD.

People Who are Devotees of Chance Fleeced Out of Many Hundreds of Thousands of Dollars.

CHICAGO, Dec. 16.—Detectives Thursday unearthed a gigantic lottery fraud. A concern that for a long time has been turning out thousands of bogus tickets to the Louisiana lottery, and others for lotteries which do not exist, was raided and J. B. Stanger, the manager, was held to the grand jury in bonds of $1,000. The detectives of the Louisiana lottery have been after Stanger for almost a year, but could not locate him till Thursday. A plant of lithographers' tools and stones worth $3,000 were found, and immense piles of bogus tickets were gathered up and carted away. Stanger was the only workman in charge of the plant, and his counterfeits are perfect. The agents of the Louisiana lottery claim he is the only man in the country who could do the work. Who was behind him is not known. It is estimated by the Louisiana people that over 500,000 bogus tickets have been turned out by Stanger, and all of them have been sold at full price.

A NOVEL CASE.

A Man's Teeth to Be Seized to Satisfy a Creditor's Claim.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 16.—William J. Woolsey seems likely to lose his false teeth by legal process. He owed Charles A. Van Duzee, the dentist, a balance of $50 for a gold plate of teeth. Van Duzee obtained a judgment for this amount, which he later assigned to David Neamith, who took out an execution but gained nothing. His attorney, Walter Halcomb, filed an affidavit in supplementary proceedings against Woolsey.

Woolsey appeared and disclosed his possessions, among them the gold plate of teeth. Thursday Judge Otis granted the order to show cause why Woolsey should not deliver up his false teeth to Sheriff Bean or a referee, to be sold at public auction to satisfy the judgment. The matter will come up for hearing at special term before Judge Otis on Saturday, December 24. The novelty of the case attracts much attention.

Hill for Secretary of State.

ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 16.—The Times-Union Thursday night, under a Washington date, says: "United States Senator Hill has been tendered the portfolio of state by President-elect Cleveland. This is following the custom to give to their leading opponent the portfolio. United States Senator Hill was approached while in New York by a close friend of Mr. Cleveland's. As a result Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Hill met in Baltimore later on, where all differences were healed, and Mr. Cleveland in person tendered Mr. Hill the portfolio of state. This would result in the following changes in New York state: Gov. Flower and Hon. Edward Murphy, jr., will both be sent to the United States senate, placing Lieut.-Gov. Sheehan in the governor's chair."

Senator Gibson Dead.

HOT SPRING, Ark., Dec. 16.—Senator Randall Lee Gibson is dead. The end came precisely at 3:10 p. m. Thursday. Senator Gibson has been here since the 4th of November, and has been confined to his bed since a few days after his arrival. The foundation for this attack which caused his death dates back to as early as 1893, when he was attacked with the gout at Corinth, Miss., while doing service in the army. These attacks have been increasing in severity ever since.

The Pope in Good Health.

ROME, Dec. 16.—Aboard rumors are again spread abroad about the pope being ill. Dr. Cecarelli, his physician, states that his illustrious patient is in good health, free from any and every chronic indisposition, that he ought to live at least another ten years, that if there is anything to be feared it would be the effect of some strong and sudden emotion, but even against this eventuality the pope's elastic temperament is a safeguard.

Blinded Her Babe.

ROGERS CITY, Mich., Dec. 16.—In a frenzy of insanity Thursday morning Mrs. Henry Baxter destroyed the sight of her two-year-old babe. For several weeks the mother has shown signs of insanity, but she was not regarded as dangerous, but Thursday morning she arose, and securing a penknife went to her babe's crib, and forcing open the baby's eye-lid she thrust the point of the knife into the pupil of the eye.
